Reasons For Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reason for allowance of the claims is the inclusion of "generating a command in response to the receipt of the records by the aggregator; wherein services are rendered in response to the command with minimal latency caused by the aggregator by initiating the rendering of the services before the aggregator begins processing a new aggregation," in the independent claims 1, 9-11; "evaluating the records in immediate response to the receipt of the records to determine whether an update or stop command is necessary; and wherein minimal latency caused by the aggregator by initiating the evaluating before the aggregator begins processing a new aggregation," in the independent claims 12, 22, 23; "generating an update or stop command immediately in response to the receipt of the records if the update or stop command is necessary; wherein minimal latency is caused by the aggregator by generating or stop command before the aggregator begins processing a new aggregation," in the independent claims 24; "sending an update or stop command to a receiving device or module in a data collection system of which the aggregator is a component in immediate response to the receipt of the records by the aggregator; wherein minimal latency is caused by the aggregator by sending the update or stop command before the aggregator begins processing a new aggregation," in the independent claim 25; "generating a command in response to the receipt of the records by the aggregator; wherein services are rendered in response to the command within a predetermined amount of time by initiating the rendering of the services before the aggregator begins processing a new aggregation," in the independent claim 26. Bullard et al. Patent #: 6,405,251 B1 does not have these specific limitations.

The Examiner's interpretation of the claim language is based upon Applicant's responses filed on 02/17/2005 (pages 8-10), and the enabling portions of the specification, pages 2-5, 9-12). Therefore, Applicant's arguments are considered persuasive with regard to patentability of the instant claims.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

3. Claims 1-30 are allowed.
